Covid-19 Public Health Requirements - Applicable to all Rental Agreements

It is the renter's responsibility to comply with all rules and regulations from the Provincial Health Officer, Fraser Health Authority, Provincial/ National Sport Organizations, WorkSafeBC and any other applicable authority or law designed to reduce the potential of contracting or transmitting COVID-19. Further, it is the renters responsibility to meet changing or new COVID-19 regulations as the regulations are subject to change from the date of the rental booking and the date of the rental occurring.

Common COVID-19 measures to reduce the potential of contracting or spreading this virus include:

Maintain appropriate social distancing (2m)

Practice respiratory etiquette (could or sneeze into sleeve)

Wash hands for at least 20 seconds

No large gatherings or organized sports/games

Stay home if you are sick

Park equipment is not sanitized

Informed Consent

I declare that I understand and will communicate the following to all rental participants as follows:

By participating in your services and facilities, I will be at risk of contracting Covid-19, in spite of any precautions taken by me or by City staff.

Covid-19 is a highly infectious disease with a latent period of transmissibility during which time apparently healthy people can be infectious. Covid-19 is a potentially fatal disease-affecting people of all ages. Covid-19 can be significantly more dangerous in people of already compromised health, and it is my responsibility - not that of program or facility staff - to understand my current health and limitations and to take appropriate additional precautions as required. I understand that if infected, I could be at risk of transmitting the disease to other family members, including those with high risk, pre-existing conditions, and that this might occur before my own sickness has become evident.

All rental participants must follow all Recreation and Culture rules, conditions and requirements, written, signed or verbal, designed to ensure the safety of rental participants, members of the public and City staff.

I have read and understand the above information and willingly accept the above risks and share the risks with all rental participants.
